THE

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Sunday, July 25, 2010—10:30am

Our Easter Celebrations and the Day of Pentecost have passed, and the Church now engages the cycle of Sundays after Pentecost. Unlike Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, and Easter, the Sundays after Pentecost are not focused upon the life events of Jesus; rather, these Sundays typically turn to Jesus Christ's teachings and parables. We have celebrated and remembered the life of Jesus from his birth to his glorious resurrection and mighty ascension, turn now to the Holy Spirit at work in the world – at work in you.
